

TRANSGENDER DAY OF RESILIENCE

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20 @ 7 PM

FIRST PARISH CONGREGATION, 630 MASS AVE

Transgender Day of Resilience is a reimagining of Transgender Day of Remembrance, which is held annually on Nov 20 to honor the lives of trans and gender expansive people whose lives have been lost to bias-motivated violence. While honoring those lives, Trans Day of Resilience focuses on stories of courage, survival, and resilience.

CO-HOSTED by Arlington's LGBTQIA+ Rainbow Commission and First Parish Congregation of Arlington

CO-SPONSORED by Arlington's Council on Aging, Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and Police Department; the Arlington Human Rights Commission and Disability Commission; and Arlington Eats, Calvary Church, Equitable Arlington, First Parish Women's Alliance, Minuteman Senior Services, Respond, Inc., and Food Link.
